

Vision Statement

	We help people with learning disabilities live safe and healthy lives.
	We make sure individuals only take the medicines they really need
	We give kind and careful support.
	We respect people's rights, dignity, and choices
	We will make no decisions about individuals, without them